THE FIGHT FOR OFFICE.

CONFLICTING EMOTIONS OF EDITORS.

APPLICANTS FOR CONSULSHIPS PERTURBED AT THE ORDER THAT ONLY FIT MEN WILL BE NAMED-SOUTHERN AND WESTERN DEMOCRATS INTENSELY JEALOUS

OF THE EAST.

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. Washington, March 15 .- "If the editors who consider it their solmen duty to sneeze whenever President Cleveland takes a pinch of snuff would wait until they had received positive information that he had done so, they Would appear less ridiculous sometimes," remarked a Southern Democratic Conessman on Monday after Mr. Cleveland's denial the report that Democratic newspaper editors suld be debarred from the competition for offices. Congressman continued:

I observe that the editors of several newspapers swallowed the story without hesitation and at once they called his 'brave and wise action.' Only merning I saw an editorial homily in a leading swspaper of my party on the blessing of an un led press,' free to criticise or to praise the acts and policy of the Administration. The editor had much to say about the value of praise and the weight of cism by an unshackled press,' and I wondered thether it could be true, as his article suggested, the giving of a few offices to Democratic editors 'muzzle' and 'shackle' the Democratic press. in my opinion, President Cleveland and the members of his Cabinet will do well to mark every editor who has written and published that sort of stuff and see to it that none of them is 'muzzled' or 'shackled' with a Federal office of any description."

Among the applicants for office are many Demo cratic newspaper editors whose hearts were lighter when the report that "recognition" was to be denied without foundation. There is Editor Morse of "The indianapolis Sentinel." for example, who desires and. according to his backers, deserves a Consul-General-He and his friends believe that the report has actually improved his chances. Editor Shanklin, The Evansville Courier," never believed the reort and despite his protest against the appointment of ex-Governor Gray to Mexico, his prospects for an appeintment are regarded as excellent. In fact, some Indiana Democrats who are regarded as shrewd and well informed say that now that "the bargain with Grey is completed and the price paid," the path of the Indiana office-seeker will be smoother than before. It remains to be seen whether this is true. There is a strong suspicion that Senator Voorhees, since his elevation to the chairmanship of the powerful Committee on Finance, may use the influence which the place naturally gives him to reward his followers at the expense of some of the "original (leveland men" in Indiana. By a good many Hoosier Democrats Mr. Voorhees is regarded as both shifty and crasty and by no means unselnsh in his political

There is much perturbation among most of the Democratic applicants for consulships who do not approve of the plan of contining the distribution of those offices to men who are fit to fill them. They had utterly forgotten, if they ever knew, that under the policy which, if not initiated, was widely extended in its application by President Harrison's Administration they would be held ineligible. The efforts of the last Administration to promote and extend the commercial interests of the United States in foreig countries attracted so much attention and commendation and were rewarded with so large a measure of success that neither President Cleveland's Administra tion nor any other which shall succeed it can well afford either to abandon the policy or do anything t Fortunately, there is no good reason believe as yet that President Cleveland or his Secre tary of State has any desire or intent to do so. The success of that policy depends in a great degree upon the capacity and efficiency of the men who hold place In the consular service, and that fact seems to be gen erally realized and appreciated, unpleasant as it may be to backwoods Democratic statesmen and broken-down party backs who swarm in Washington these hose chief if not sole conception of a con sular office is that it is a place which yields a fair salary and fat "unofficial fees."

That there has been a steady and marked improve the efficiency of the consular service of the United States, especially during the last four years, every intelligent man will readily admit who he studied the Consular Reports, which are published monthly by the Department of State. The main-tenance of the standard of efficiency already attained and its improvement, so far as practicable, certainly be endangered by the appointment of inexperienced men, especially men who, like nine tenths of these who are now striving to obtain places are wholly destitute of the qualifications required in this branch of the public service-men who are urged for appointments solely in order to pay debts of Democratic Senators and Representatives, who know little and perhaps care less about the magnitude and importance of the public interests involved.

One of the interesting features of the Democratic scramble for the offices is the jealousy exhibited by estern and Southern Congressmen on account of appointments already made and other appointment which are generally expected. This sentiment began to find expression among Democratic Representatives in Washington early last winter when members from the South and West openly declared that the had arrived when "Eastern Democrats must take a back seat." During the last session of Congress it was aggravated by the efforts of Mr. Cleveland through Eastern Democrats to procure the enactment of anti-silver legislation; it was intensified when his Cabinet appointments were finally completed and announced, and when it was found that of the first four nominations sent to the Senate for other offices one was from New-York and two from Massachusetts amazement and indignation struggled for mastery in the breasts of Southern and Western Democrats. of them in conversation with a Tribune correspondent

I cannot understand what the President means I wonder if he remembers whose votes elected him. He never could have carried his own State if Demo crats who were bitterly opposed to his nomination had not given him the most hearty and loyal support. He rewards them by appointing their most bitter enemy to an office which controls the appointment of all the pestmasters except a few. Then he goes to Massachusetts, which gave Harrison 26,000 majority last year, for his First Assistant Secretary of State and his Consul-General to London, after having already given the State a place in the Cabinet. Now, as I am informed, he proposes to give another assistant secretaryship and one if not two good diplomatic appointments to Massachusetts, a State which has not east an electoral vote for a Democratic candidate for the Presidency since I can remember. If President Cleveland expects or hopes to harmonize and build up the Democratic party by such means be will find himself woefully deceived; instead of do ing that he will split it in twain, and the party which as prided itself on its non-sectionalism will become a sectional party. Personally I do not care much how or where the offices are distributed, but I am unalterably opposed to the domination of Eastern Demo crate ideas, especially in matters which are to affect the financial and economic policy of the party. The Lemocrats of the South and West will no longer submit to be ruled by Eastern Democrats, and the sooner Mr. Usveland recognizes that fact the better will it be by his Administration. I am grieved to see him altering upon the course indicated by the appoint-tants already under and these which by the Administration. I am grieved to see him meeting upon the course indicated by the appoint was a see that the second of the

When this statesman read the list of nominations sent to the Senate today he probably saw further proof that the President does not feel under special obligations either to the "Democrats of the South and obligations either to the "Democrats of the South And West" or to Senator Hill and his partisans.

It must be said for the "Democrats of the South and West" that they are by no means "backward in toming forward" as applicants for offices, and that if the Fresident ignores or forgets them it will not be their fault. Kentucky still keeps well to the

THESE MEN WILL NOT BE DISTURBED. LIGHTHOUSE KEEPERS AND LIFE-SAVERS TO

BE RETAINED DURING GOOD BEHAVIOR. Washington, March 15 .- Secretary Carlisle to-day made the first enunciation of the policy that will govern his action in the matter of appointments in the lighthouse and life-saving services. The announcement was made in connection with two applications its committee making assignment of minority for places in the lighthouse service. The Secretary writes:

"In reply, I beg leave to inform you that the places for which Mr. Green and Mr. Burger apply are not vacant, and no cause for the removal of the present incumbents is known. The great number of lightkeepers employed and their isolated situations work, and a faithful performance of their responsible duties, involving the safety of the vast amount of property and the number of lives intrusted to their care, depends upon the good character and competency of the keepers themselves. It has been and is the policy of the Department and of the lighthouse establishment to encourage and insure a high standard among them by retaining them in the service moting and transferring them to better stations as "Lightkeepers are held to a strict performance of duty, but until some incompetency or neglect on their part is shown, they are not disturbed in their tenure of office. It has been the uniform custom for many years to regard the lighthouse establishment as a non-partisan service. It is my intention to continue that custom. No lightkeeper will be disturbed by me in his official place merely because of his political opinions."

After the caucus reassembled during the recess there was a debate of some length on the subject of the removal of Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, from the Appropriations Committee. Mr. Stewart found one or two champions, but the cancus was practically unanimous in the opinion that inasmuch as Mr. Stewart had been the recipient of a chairmanship at the hands of the majority, he should not be permitted to remain on the important Committee an Apprepriations as a representative of the minority. He remains as a representative of the minority in other committees, and is the ranking member of the minority in the Committee on Irrigation and Reclamation of Arid Lands. Mr. Teller gives up his place on the Committee on Privileges and Elections, of which he was chairman and would be the ranking member, and goes to the foot of the list on the Appropriation Committee. Mr. Higgins is substituted for Mr. Teller on the Elections Committee. The Republicans retain all their members of the Committee on the Judiciary by reason of the fact that it has been increased from a total membership of nine to eleven.

SWEDEN'S CHIEF COMMISSIONER HERE-HIS COUNTRY'S EXHIBIT.

Arthur Leffler, the chief commissioner for the Kingdom of Sweden to the World's Columbian Exhibition at Chicago, and Axel Welin, assistant secretary to the Royal Swedish Commission for the Chicago Fair, are at the Metropolitan Hotel. The visitors were seen by a reporter for The Tribune yesterday and they said that the Swedish exhibit would be one of the finest at the Fair. Mr. Leffler said that the Government had appropriated 350,000 rowns or about $100,000 for the exhibit to be sent to Chicago, and that amount in proportion to the population of other countries was the largest ap propriation made by any European country. The Swedish Government is taking more than ordinary interest in the Fair," said Mr. Leffler, "and it has done something in the way of appropriating money that no other country has thought of. In addition to the 350,000 crowns for the exhibit, the kingdom has appropriated 50,000 crowns to be used to send the mechanical engineers of the country to the Fair. Sweden regards the Exposition as a great educational institution and it wants its mechanical engineers to get the benefits of a visit to Chicago and he 50,000 crowns is for the purpose of assisting them to get there

The exhibit left Sweden on March 2 and was transferred to a vessel that sails from Liverpool to-day. The exhibit will be here in a week or ten days and the fair grounds by April 10. The most prominent articles of the exhibit will be of fron and steel. The other articles will be in clay, cement, wood-pulp, porcelain and wick. Our art exhibit will be comparatively small, but it will prove to be a surprise to the judges in the art department. There are only about seventy-five exhibitors in this department, but some of the most elebrated artists of Europe have contributed, and among the 200 works in oil, pastel and water-refor-some superior work will be seen. Among the artists who have ent-red the contest for honors are Arb-relius, Berg, Bjorea, Hageborg, Kronberg, Carl Lars-on, Zorn, Count Rosen and Trince Eugene, the fourth son of King Count Rosen and Trince Eugene, the fourth son of King Usear. The Prince is a great artist and could easily make a good living with his brush. Some of his work will probably carry off honors. Two of our great sculpiors, kassetherg and Borjesson, have contributed some of their skill to the exhibit.

THE QUESTION OF AWARDS AT THE FAIR.

Chicogo, March 15 (Special).—In figuring out the ceneral plans for the World's Columbian Exposition the question of a system of awards has been one of he most troublesome. After a dozen plans, more or less, had been presented and rejected the Board of Control, through the Committee on Awards, has de-cided upon a scheme which was deemed adequate to the needs of the exposition. But the plan having been accepted there is now no money to carry it out. Congress has made an appropriation, but in is a legal action. There has always been one great The management of the business was placed by Congress in the hands of the National Commission of the Fatr, while the local directory was expected to foot the bills. That is the attitude of Congress now in the alleged appropriation It is not to come out of the $2,500,000 appropriation in souvenir coins until the local directory gives ecurity for the repayment of the money into the Treasury. There are different constructions put upon hat law, the most serious of which is that Congress had no right to divert any part of the appropriation of $2,500,000, that the local directory will not be required to furnish the security to get the former aprequired to furnish the security to get the former appropriation, and that as a result of these things there will be no awards and no competition at the World's Fair. There are others of the National Commission, however, who believe that the directory will have to forman that security or lose part of the appropriation -8570,000-as the recent bill provides. The present loand of Directors has held its last meeting. It, therefore, cannot furnish the security that the Sundry Civil bill requires. The next Board of Directors will not meet until April 14, only two weeks before the Exposition opens. Some World's Fair officials think there will be awards and others think there will not.

ILLINOIS SUNDAY OPENING EFFORTS.

Washington, March 15.-The proposition embodied a bill introduced in the Illinois Legislature to open the Illinois State exhibit at the World's Fair on Sunday, which it is expected may result in the opening of the entire Pair on Sunday, has attracted little at tention here so far. An explanation of this apparent remissness may be found in the fact that few of the senators and Representatives who have so bitterly opposed Sunday opening are now in the city. Sen-ator Quay, who led the fight in the Senate, is in Florida, and Senator Wilson, of Iowa, who seconded his efforts, has been ill. Representative Morse, of beyond which a horse Massachusetts, a lending Sabbatarian, is away from town, and so are Representative Dingley and others of town, and so are Representative Dingey and others of the church militant. But the real friends of the Fair here look with disfavor upon this last move, and their views were expressed by Senator Cullom to-day when he said that the Springfield bill would not pass and should not, and further, that continued agita-tion of the Sunday opening proposition would certainly result in disaster to the Fair.

BRITISH WARSHIPS FOR THE NAVAL REVIEW.

Hallfax, March 15.-Advices received here state that the fleet for the New-York Naval review will leave Bermuda on April 27, and will include the Blake, Australia, Magicienne, Tartar and Partridge. It is possible that one or two more ships may go, but it has been definitely decided that those mentioned will be present to represent Great Britain.

A WOMAN'S WORDS TO WOL

Certainly the Most Unusual that Ever Were Penned.

MRS. HENDERSON OF PORT CHESTER.

She Graphically Tells of Her Troubles, Her Strage

gles and Her Triumphs. One of the most wonderful letters ever written is that which follows. Any one who reads it is certain to be absorbingly interested. It is from Mrs. J. Henderson, of Port Chester, N. Y. She says:

"I am a woman and I wish to speak frankly and freely to women. There are thousands of young girls, middle aged, and even enderly ladies to-day in the greatest danger aged, and even enterly latter than a standing upon the brink of a precipice and do not realize it. It is in the hope that the wonderful experience through which I have passed may be a blessing and a warning to them that causes me to write it. "About two years ago, it being the 'change of life' with me. I was treated by three of the best physicians in this place. At first I was treated for bronchitis, growing worse all the time, coughing constantly, until my voice was only a whisper. My head peined me, I had little if any appetite, I felt tired most of the time and yes. was sleepless and restless. I was weak, nervous, un-strung; I lost all interest in life, felt despondent, and yes could not understand the reason. I did not suffer acute pain, but felt a constant misery. Finally my body began to bloat terribly, accompanied with pain. At this time a further examination on the part of the doctors revealed further examination on the part of the doctors revealed the terrible fact that I was suffering from Bright's disease of the kidneys in its most aggravated form. The doctor was urged to do all he could for me. He visited me several times daily and finally said to my husband; 'I might as well teil you plainly that your wife will not live the day out.' At that time my condition was fearful. My right side was paralyzed, my face distorted, and my tongue stiffened so that I could not speak. It was while in this deplorable condition that my husband, who had been my constant attendant and nurse, resolved if I lived until daylight, to try a remedy of which we had heard much, but concerning which we knew but little. I felt the effects of it at once. The tone of my stomach restored so that I could retain the nourishment given me. I continued to improve, the paralysis left me, the bicating ceased, my strength returned, and I am a well woman toceased, my strength returned, and I am a well woman to-day, all through the use of Warner's Safe Cure, which took me from a condition of hopeless mise y and restored me to health and happiness.

"Since my recovery, over which I feel so rejoiced, I have had opportunities to see much of the effects of this wonderful Safe Cure in many of my friends and acquaint-ances. I know there are many women who do not realize their danger even at all conditions of life. The young woman is in peril even when on the threshold of woman-hood. The wife has a legion of dangers, threatening to overcome her at any time. The mother is beset by peril, as a horde of troubles con-equent upon materaity continually menace her. When, after possing through all these dangers, a woman arrives at the time when change of life occurs, she is again beset by the severest of all trials, and, indeed, through all her life a woman needs a friend upon which she can lean, on which she can depend.

I believe that friend, the best friend known to woman, is Warner's Safe Cure. I know little concerning it except what it has done for me and what I have seen it has done for others, but I do know that it saved my life, that it has made me happy, and that wherever it has been used. I have seen the same grand, beneficial results.

"I make the above statement frankly and freely, and from a desire that others may be benefited as I have been. If suffering, and the danger which surrounds every women's life can be avoided, or even softened, the lap piness of life can be increased and the world made vastly better."
